And House of Blues Present

Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre

In this Audience Participation Comedy-Whodunnit, a murder occurs and suddenly the audience is smack-dab in the middle of a homicide investigation. A detective runs the show, and actors are blended in with your group... so TRUST NO ONE! There are clues, scenes, and it all ties together into one neat story where the guests try to solve the murder(s) and win a prize for the best answer – all while enjoying a wonderful three-course dinner.

And best of all, YOU can “frame” someone in your group – for example, if you give us a business card or a picture (on the sly) of the guest you want to incriminate, we can plant that as a piece of evidence on a dead body and – bam! – you’ve got a key suspect!
